n the power of the dawn—

and the power of a

drifting over us a softer power than the power of the night—

above us, and to hear the voice of the elements, and to feel the hearts of the mountains—

and to see the

beauty of the stars—

and to dream the

dreams of the gods—

and to know the

knowledge of the ancient masters—

and to feel the force of the

mysteries—

and to be one with the

universe—

that is the

Queen of the Air.

For who is the Queen of the Air?

The Queen of the Air is

the dawn, and the

dawn is the power of the

Queen of the Air.

And who are the people of the

Queen of the Air?

The people of the

Queen of the Air are

those who know the
